Basic Referees' Courses at Lancashire FA

Our courses are designed to provide a full understanding of the Laws of Association Football, whether seeking to operate at a basic level or, if you are looking to achieve a more complex understanding of both practical, and theoretical match official skills, we provide safe, ethical and effective methods of refereeing.

Aimed at anyone aged 14 or over who wishes to become an active referee, the course is 12 hours in duration, with either written, theoretical or practical examinations.

The full qualification now requires the following:

- Pre-course study pack;
- Enhanced Criminal Records Bureau check;
- Safeguarding Children training for all candidates;
- Attendance at the basic training course;
- Completion of 6 11 a-side matches;
- Attendance at a follow-up training evening.

Only after having successfully completed all of this will you become a qualified referee and in the first instance be able to accept appointments on local adult and junior leagues

Booking Information

The costs of this course are:

- Aged 16 & over – £80
(£65 course fee + £15 registration;
£30 is refunded on completion of 6 games);
- Aged 14 or 15 years old – £50
(£35 course fee + £15 registration;
£10 is refunded on completion of 6 games).

The course fee includes

- FA Referee Registration;
- Fox 40 whistle and red & yellow cards;
- Enhanced FA CRB Disclosure where required;
- Safeguarding Children training where required;
- Study Pack and Laws of Association Football;
- Membership of the FA Match Officials Association (FAMOA);
- Certificate of qualification.
